GRAVE UNREST AMONG FARMERS THREATENS ECONOMIC STRUCTURE

LABOR UNIONS ARE BLAMED FOR PRESENT TROUBLE

Among Farmers.

CAN'T GET LABORERS

Middlemen Are Also Responsible Say Many; Want
Direct Markets

Washington, Jan. 31.—Indications of a widespread spirit of unrest and dissatisfaction among farmers of the country, so threatening as likely to disturb the existing economic structure, is considered by government officials to be revealed in more than 40,000 replies to a questionnaire recently sent out by the postoffice department.

The replies as thus far digested were summarized in a report prepared by George L. Wood, superintendent of the postoffice department's division of rural mail, and read to the senate postoffice committee today by James I. Blakeslee, fourth assistant postmaster general. The views of the 40,000 or more farmers were obtained by the broadcasting of 200,000 copies of a questionnaire throughout the agriculture states, asking for suggestions whereby the postoffice department might aid in cutting down the cost of living.

Thousand a Day.

Answers to the questionnaires have been coming in since the middle of December at the rate of 1,000 a day, and as summarized by officials, show the major complaints of the farmers in numerical order to be:

Inability to obtain labor to work the farms; hired help and the farmers' children having been lured to the city by higher wages and easier living;

High profits taken by middlemen for the mere handling of food products; and,

Lack of proper agencies of contract between the farmer and the ultimate consumer.

Many of the replies, said one official who had looked over them, probably as many as 50 per cent, indicate that the writers contemplate either leaving their farms or curtailing acreage under cultivation, because of one or more of the three major grievances and because of the growing feeling against non-producing city dwellers.

Calls it Grave Menace.

Commenting tonight on the replies Assistant Postmaster General Blakeslee said:

"Such a condition at a time when the predominant cry is for production and still more production, cannot but constitute a grave menace."

Before the senate committee, he characterized the situation as "disturbing and portentous of disastrous consequences."

This opinion was expressed by Mr. Blakeslee after a member of the senate committee had remarked that the replies seemed to have come "mostly from a bunch of Bolsheviks."

Excerpts from a number of letters, taken at random from the more than 40,000 already on file at the postoffice department, showed the trend of thought among at least a considerable proportion of the farmers of New England, the middle West states, Georgia and the Eastern agricultural section.

ATTACK ACTION OF LEGISLATORS ON LABOR BILL

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—Senator Howell Wright and Representative J. E. Foster, Coshocton, have refused to approve the report made to the joint legislative committee on administrative reorganization by S. S. Wolf, a New York attorney, employed by the state department of the industrial commission.

Wright and Foster, representing the minority on the committee, severely criticized the majority members for employing Wolf, declaring in a report that there was no need for the examination of the workmen's compensation department.

It is expected that the minority members will appeal to state auditor Donahay to hold Wolf's pay. They allege that Wolf was not competent for the position and was employed for the sole purpose of discrediting the workmen's compensation fund in Ohio.

PLAN TO INCREASE MEMBERSHIP IN 11 COUNTIES OF STATE

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—A campaign in eleven counties in the state to increase the membership of the county farm bureaus will be started at once by Frank C. Dean, of Ohio university extension service.

Present plans include publicity campaigns for more members, closer cooperation among the farmers organizations, and to inform farmers and consumers of the cost of production and distribution of farm products and of the need of proper legislation.

Farmers, who were here this week to attend the farmers' week meetings were leaving for their homes today, as practically all of the organizations have ended their sessions. Official figures show that 6,000 farmers were here to attend the various farmer conferences.

CONTESTS COURTS DECISION MONDAY

Owing to the fact that Judge C. H. Kyle was obliged to go to Columbus Saturday, the habeas corpus case of Samuel Pearson against Carl Poland, of Columbus which was set for hearing in common pleas court Saturday morning, was continued until Monday. Mr. Pearson is contending the right of the defendant who is his adopted son, to have the custody of the plaintiff's 15 year old daughter, Florence Avilla Pearson. The custody of the girl was given to Poland, it is said, by the juvenile court of Franklin county. While on a visit to her foster brother's home, the girl eloped to Kentucky and was married. The girl was brought to Xenia from Columbus by Deputy Sheriff George A. Birch Friday evening. She was given into custody of her father until Monday, and he took her to his home in Clifton.

NEW TRIAL SCHEDULED.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 31.—A new trial of a $150,000 suit against Attorney D. F. Anderson was asked by William B. Hammer, Youngstown engineer, in a motion filed in common pleas court Saturday.

PASSENGERS ARE THROWN INTO ICY WATERS OF LAKE

Sleeping Car Crashes

Score of People

38 DEG. BELOW ZERO

No Loss of Life Reported; Sufferers Rushed To Hospitals.

North Hero, Vt., Jan. 31.—A score or more passengers on a sleeper attached to a Montreal express train were thrown into the icy water of Lake Champlain today when the car broke through a railroad bridge, and was half submerged in the lake. No loss of life was reported.

The scene of the accident is a lonely section on the shore of Lake Champlain between this place and Grand Isle.

The train, a double header, was made of coaches and sleepers from New York and Boston. It was running over the Rutland railroad from Rutland, Vt., to Montreal. Advice reaching the railroad authorities said the two big engines and the first coach passed over a small railroad bridge on the edge of the lake. The bridge collapsed as the third car, a sleeper, crossed the structure. The sleeper and its occupants, crashed down through the ice into the lake. The temperature was 38 degrees below zero, hampering the work of rescue. The persons taken from the wrecked sleeper, were hurried to Burlington and placed in hospitals. Several more with minor injuries were placed in hotels in Burlington.

Some of the injured had parts of their bodies frozen.

BOLSHEVISM IS NOW THREAT IN GERMAN CITIES

The Hague, Jan. 31.—Germany may voluntarily embrace Bolshevism, the government retiring as the Karolyi regime did in Hungary before Bela Kun and the Communists came into power according to advices received here from Berlin today. Leaders among the reactionaries are quoted as saying:

"Let the people have their Bolshevism and get cured of 'redism' and if national bankruptcy comes the Bolsheviks will have to accept the odium for it."

The German government presses are reported to be producing currency night and day which is not backed by gold. Some German financiers are quoted as saying that a financial crash is inevitable.

Conservative leaders in Germany argue that Germany would probably follow the same course as Hungary if Bolshevism got full sway. Since the collapse of the Bela Kun regime at Budapest monarchist sentiment is said to have been growing. German reactionaries contend that Bolshevism in Germany would be probably followed by a limited monarchical form of government.

SPREAD OF INFLUENZA IS SEEN BUT WELL IN HAND REPORTS PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE

Washington, Jan. 31.—Although influenza now has become epidemic throughout a large part of the country, the Public Health Service today said that the situation was well in hand practically everywhere and that "medical and nursing facilities were proving to be adequate."

"From telegraphic reports received by the Health Service," the statement said, "it is evident that epidemic influenza prevails over a large part of the country. Moreover, with its well established characteristic, this prevalence appears to be unflinching by climate."

"So far as our reports indicate the disease is quite as prevalent in the warm Southern regions as it is elsewhere."

"Reports indicate that practically everywhere the situation is well in hand, and that medical and nursing facilities nowhere are overtaxed. Certainly the situation is in marked contrast to that which prevailed last year."

He had little to say about the political situation in England. But he declared that the signs of the times pointed to a closer understanding between the two great English-speaking nations.

CITY'S POOR ARE DESTITUTE AS COLD INCREASES

"Many of the poor people in Xenia are living in such a congested condition in their homes during the cold weather, that it has been difficult to do satisfactory work among them," said Mrs. L. R. Robertson, visiting housekeeper for the Social Service League.

"I have been encountering cases of great distress and no more urgent appeal for better housing conditions among the poor could be made if all Xenia people could see conditions as I see them," said Mrs. Robertson.

"Recently I found a family living in three attic rooms, the mother ill in bed, and three little children, one a three months old baby without a stitch of warm underclothing. The father had been staying home from his work at the mill for a few days in order to take care of his family."

"I did what I could for them, and sent the nurse to them. We secured warm clothing for the mother and children. Within a few days I found that the mother had crawled out of bed, and came back to work at the factory. The desperate condition of the family finances had driven her to it. She had been on the verge of pneumonia."

"Another family I visited lives in a wretched hovel, the kitchen of which is below the level of the surroundings. Surface water runs into the house, and during the present spell of thawing and freezing weather the wretched little kitchen floor is covered with water."

MILK DEALERS TO ORGANIZE IN OHIO

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—A complete organization of Ohio's 280,000 milk producers, including local associations is being planned by the state dairymen's association. The program adopted by the association at its final meeting here, in conjunction with farmers week, includes plans for a better co-operation among the breeders associations throughout the state.

Active officers of the dairymen's breeders and producers organizations will constitute the executive committee of the new organization.

BRITISH CONDUCT RAIDS AGAINST SINN FEINERS ALL OVER IRELAND

PLAN TO ECLIPSE PEACE TREATY IN FIGHT FOR LEAGUE

League of Nations to Be
Issue in Hot Political Campaign.

ATTACKS FROM STUMP

Hitchcock Will Try to Re-
vive Peace Treaty Again
in Senate.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Before Senator Hitchcock can attempt to revive the peace treaty in the senate on Feb. 10, as he has announced he intends to do, the league of nations will be made the chief issue of one of the hottest campaigns ever waged in the turbulent political history of Missouri.

On Feb. 14 the voters of the third congressional district of that state will elect a successor to Secretary of Commerce Alexander, a democrat who represented it from March 4, 1907, until he resigned from congress recently to step into the president's cabinet.

The district comprises ten counties. According to the census of 1910 they had a population of 159,419, which has doubtless increased considerably since then.

Headed by Senator Borah, of Idaho and Johnson, of California, Republicans opposed to the commitment of the American people to the league of nations, propose to give battle to the administration forces in the district next week for the express purpose of putting public sentiment regarding the treaty to crucial test.

Borah and Johnson to Stump.

Senators Borah and Johnson, are prepared to attack the league from the stump. They will be met by Mr. Alexander himself and other spokesmen for the administration, including, it is said, Attorney General Palmer and Third Assistant Postmaster General Dockery.

While the battle over the league of nations is raging in Missouri, the treaty will be held in abeyance in the senate pending the return of Senator Hitchcock, the administration's treaty manager from Omaha, his home city, whither he departed last night. It may be that Hitchcock while he is in the middle west, may find time to deliver one or two addresses in the Missouri district.

Senators seeking ratification of the treaty proposed to quietly continue negotiations for a compromise on the Lodge reservations, despite yesterday's breaking up of the senatorial bipartisan conference. They are opposed to the treaty being called up again in the senate for fear it would be made the subject of endless speech-making. Senator Hitchcock will have to muster a majority to carry out his threat to call it upon Feb. 10, and this some senators, both Republican and Democratic, predict he will be unable to do.

SINN FEIN WILL LAUNCH BIG DRIVE

Dublin, Jan. 31.—It was learned from an authoritative source today that the Sinn Fein organization is preparing to launch another $1,000,000 loan for the Irish republic. The last loan was over subscribed but Sinn Fein officials declare that the stoppage of advertising by the government left many sources untapped.

E. T. Meredith, New Secretary of Agriculture.

E. T. Meredith, New Secretary of Agriculture.

President Wilson has nominated E. T. Meredith, of Des Moines, Iowa, editor of Successful Farming to succeed David F. Houston as Secretary of Agriculture. Mr. Houston has been named to succeed Carter Glass as Secretary of the Treasury.

GEN. WOOD MAY GIVE UP POST OF ARMY CHIEF

Washington, Jan. 31.—Senator William E. Borah's letter to General Leonard Wood demanding that the latter put himself on record as to how he stands on the treaty of Versailles and the League of Nations may, with an accumulation of other things, cause the general to quit the army.

At the beginning of General Wood's campaign for the presidency, the question arose as to whether he should resign his post as commander of central department and, for the time being it was settled by Secretary of War Baker's categorical affirmation that the general's resignation was in no wise essential.

Since that time, however, General Wood has felt somewhat cramped, it is said, in his position as officer in the army and an active candidate for the presidency of the United States.

So next Monday, in Chicago, at the Congress hotel, he will confer with his managers and reach a definite decision as to what he will do.

He and some of his friends are said to feel that under existing circumstances, he cannot come out flat footed, fairly and squarely in the open on the questions which he will be called upon to answer, without running risks of embarrassment. Others of his backers point out that history recounts more than one instance of American commanders running for the presidency without tendering their resignations, and insist that he will merely be following tradition if he chooses to do the same. In this opinion they have the backing of the secretary of war.

CHORUS GIRLS STAGE BITTER FIGHT OVER LIMBURGER CHEESE

Chicago, Jan. 31.—That a hair pulling contest between chorus girls over the relative merit of Limburger and fromage de brie for sandwiches started the row between the actors equity association and the Shuberts which now threatens to develop into a new theatrical strike, was the charge made by the management of a leading theater today.

The cheese altercation occurred back stage and was between winter garden members, it was said. The management fired the participants. J. Martin Keyes, local head of the equity association, declared however, that the whole trouble is due to violation of the equity contracts by the Shuberts and that there was no Shubert shows here in 48 hours unless this is adjusted.

THUGS TRY TO GET SPRINGFIELD MONEY

Springfield, O., Jan. 31.—Using picks and crowbars, yeggs tried to break into safes in the ticket office of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad company, and the Charles E. Grube coal company, last night. They were unsuccessful in their efforts to secure any money. On the previous night the safe of the Healey coal company was wrecked but no money was obtained.

DOCTORS RAISE FEE

Sandusky, Jan. 31.—Enter the high cost of illness. Physicians and surgeons here today announced an advance in fees effective tomorrow. Day calls, under the new rate, will cost $2 instead of $1.50, and night calls $4 instead of $3. Other rates increased accordingly.

OFFICE HOLDERS ARRESTED; BRITISH WARSHIPS COME

Victims of Raids.

MOVES NOT SURPRISE

Prisoners Will be Confined in English Political Prison on Arrival.

Dublin, Jan. 31.—A new series of raids against the Sinn Fein throughout all Ireland was begun today by the British military authorities.

Many Sinn Feiners who were elected to the municipal offices in the recent local Irish election were arrested. British warships are due to arrive in Dublin bay tonight, to carry the prisoners to English jails.

A meeting of fifty members of the Dublin corporation (council) was raided at 4 o'clock. Some were arrested, but others escaped.

Sinn Fein officials from Thurles were arrested while on their way to participate in a meeting.

The new repressive measures by the British government did not come as a surprise. They are regarded as the government's answer to the Republicans' defiant action in nominating Sinn Fein members.

For the first time the government carried out wholesale raids without assistance from the police. Only soldiers were used.

The prisoners, it was said, would be sent to Wormwood Scrub prison in England, where many political prisoners from Ireland have been confined in the past.

LABOR UNIONS PROTEST PLAN OF EXPULSION

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 31.—Labor organizations representative of practically every city in the state will meet here this afternoon to protest the suspension of the five socialist assemblymen investigation of whom will take at least another week's time of the assembly judiciary committee.

The Syracuse socialists, Charles W. Steen, Frank L. Preston and William Hotz, recently convicted under the espionage law by federal prosecution, will be on hand Tuesday morning when the hearings in the inquiry are resumed. They have been called to testify for the state.

At least one of the three or four days the committee plans to sit next week will be taken up with the introduction of documentary evidence to range over a wide field of socialistic endeavor not only in this country but abroad. The proceedings late yesterday took the committee through England, France, Russia and a greater part of the United States while workings of the socialists were spread upon the records.

It is generally believed that the state's evidence will be concluded by Wednesday of next week.

Counsel for the suspended assemblymen declared today, however, that they will require two or three days for the examination of witnesses in rebuttal.

SCHWAB DECLARES AMERICA TO GET MORE PROSPERITY

Wheeling, Jan. 31.—Charles M. Schwab, of the Bethlehem Steel company, sees a new era of prosperity for America. His views were reflected in an address here when said:

"I have the greatest optimism for the future of the country. I do not fear the overturning of the government by Bolshevists. I intend to spend more money for business expansion than ever. In fact I will spend all I have and all I can borrow to build and increase business. Efficiency in industry means an honest day's work, an honest day's pay—that is the problem now confronting us and one we have to solve."

ANGLO-JAP ALLIANCE MAY BE RENEWED

London, Jan. 31.—Negotiations for a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance are under way, said a press dispatch from Tokyo today. Viscount Uchida, the Japanese foreign minister, was quoted as saying that Japan had decided to renew the pact because of the nation wide demand for such action.

Within a few days I found that the mother had crawled out of bed, and gone back to work at the factory. The desperate condition of the family finances had driven her to it. She had been on the verge of pneumonia."

"Another family I visited lives in a wretched hovel, the kitchen of which is below the level of the surroundings. Surface water runs into the house, and during the present spell of thawing and freezing weather the wretched little kitchen floor is covered with water."

League of Nations to Be

Campaign.

ATTACKS FROM STUMP

Hitchcock Will Try to Re-
vive Peace Treaty Again
In Senate.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Before Senator Hitchcock can attempt to revive the peace treaty in the senate on Feb. 10, as he has announced he intends to do, the league of nations will be made the chief issue of one of the hottest campaigns ever waged in the turbulent political history of Missouri.

On Feb. 14 the voters of the third congressional district of that state will elect a successor to Secretary of Commerce Alexander, a democrat who represented it from March 4, 1907, until he resigned from congress recently to step into the president's cabinet.

The district comprises ten counties. According to the census of 1910 they had a population of 159,419, which has doubtless increased considerably since then.

Headed by Senator Borah, of Idaho and Johnson, of California, Republicans opposed to the commitment of the American people to the league of nations, propose to give battle to the administration forces in the district next week for the express purpose of putting public sentiment regarding the treaty to crucial test.

Senators Borah and Johnson are prepared to attack the league from the stump. They will be met by Mr. Alexander himself and other spokesmen for the administration, including, it is said, Attorney General Palmer and Third Assistant Postmaster General Dockery.

While the battle over the league of nations is raging in Missouri the treaty will be held in abeyance in the senate pending the return of Senator Hitchcock, the administration's treaty manager from Omaha, his home city, whither he departed last night. It may be that Hitchcock while he is in the middle west, may find time to deliver one or two addresses in the Missouri district.

Senators seeking ratification of the treaty proposed to quietly continue negotiations for a compromise on the Lodge reservations, despite yesterday's breaking up of the senatorial bipartisan conference. They are opposed to the treaty being called up again in the senate for fear it would be made the subject of endless speech-making. Senator Hitchcock will have to muster a majority to carry out his threat to call it upon Feb. 10, and this some senators, both Republican and Democratic, predict he will be unable to do.

SINN FEIN WILL LAUNCH BIG DRIVE

Dublin, Jan. 31.—It was learned from an authoritative source today that the Sinn Fein organization is preparing to launch another $1,000,000 loan for the Irish republic. The last loan was over subscribed but Sinn Fein officials declare that the stoppage of advertising by the government left many sources untapped.

E. T. Meredith, New Secretary of Agriculture.

Edward T. Meredith

President Wilson has nominated E. T. Meredith, of Des Moines, Iowa, editor of Successful Farming to succeed David F. Houston as Secretary of Agriculture. Mr. Houston has been named to succeed Carter Glass as Secretary of the Treasury.

GEN. WOOD MAY GIVE UP POST
OF ARMY CHIEF

Washington, Jan. 31.—Senator William E. Borah's letter to General Leonard Wood demanding that the latter put himself on record as to how he stands on the treaty of Versailles and the League of Nations may, with an accumulation of other things, cause the general to quit the army.

At the beginning of General Wood's campaign for the presidency, the question arose as to whether he should resign his post as commander of central department and, for the time being it was settled by Secretary of War Baker's categorical affirmation that the general's resignation was in no wise essential.

Since that time, however, General Wood has felt somewhat cramped, it is said, in his position as officer in the army and an active candidate for the presidency of the United States.

So next Monday, in Chicago, at the Congress hotel, he will confer with the managers and reach a definite decision as to what he will do.

He and some of his friends are said to feel that under existing circumstances, he cannot come out flatly, fairly and squarely in the open on all the questions which he will be called upon to answer, without running risks of embarrassment. Others of his backers point out that history recounts more than one instance of American commanders running for the presidency without tendering their resignations, and insist that he will merely be following tradition if he chooses to do the same. In this opinion they have the backing of the secretary of war.

CHORUS GIRLS STAGE
BITTER FIGHT OVER
LIMBURGER CHEESE

Chicago, Jan. 31.—That a hair pulling contest between chorus girls over the relative merit of Limburger and farmhouse cheese, was the charge made by the management of a leading theater today.

The cheese altercation occurred back stage and was between winter garden members, it was said. The management fired the participants, J. Martin Keyes, local head of the equity association, declared however, that the whole trouble is due to violation of the equity contracts by the Shuberts and that there will be no Shubert shows here in 48 hours unless this is adjusted.

THUGS TRY TO GET
SPRINGFIELD MONEY

Springfield, O., Jan. 31.—Using pickets and crowbars, yeggs tried to break into safes in the ticket office of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad company, and the Charles E. Grube coal company, last night. They were unsuccessful in their efforts to secure any money. On the previous night the safe of the Hayley coal company was wrecked but no money was obtained.

MOVES NOT SURPRISE

Prisoners Will be Confined in English Political Prison on Arrival.

Dublin, Jan. 31.—A new series of raids against the Sinn Fein through out all Ireland was begun today by the British military authorities.

Many Sinn Feiners who were elected to the municipal offices in the recent local Irish election were arrested. British warships are due to arrive in Dublin bay tonight, to carry the prisoners to English jails.

A meeting of fifty members of the Dublin corporation (council) was raided at 4 o'clock. Some were arrested, but others escaped.

Sinn Fein officials from Thurles were arrested while on their way to participate in a meeting.

The new repressive measures by the British government did not come as a surprise. They are regarded as the government's answer to the Republicans' defiant action in nominating Sinn Fein sheriffs.

For the first time the government carried out wholesale raids without assistance from the police. Only soldiers were used.

The prisoners, it was said, would be sent to Wormwood Scrubbs prison in England, where many political prisoners from Ireland have been confined in the past.

LABOR UNIONS
PROTEST PLAN
OF EXPULSION

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 31.—Labor organizations representative of practically every city in the state will meet here this afternoon to protest the suspension of the five socialist assemblies, investigation of whom will take at least another week's time of the assembly judiciary committee.

The Syracuse socialists, Charles W. Steen, Frank L. Preston and William Hotz recently convicted under the espionage law by federal prosecution, will be on hand Tuesday morning when the hearings in the inquiry are resumed. They have been called to testify for the state.

At least one of the three or four days the committee plans to sit next week will be taken up with the introduction of documentary evidence to range over a wide field of socialist endeavor not only in this country but abroad. The proceedings late yesterday took the committee through England, France, Russia and a greater part of the United States while workings of the socialists were spread upon the records.

It is generally believed that the state's evidence will be concluded by Wednesday of next week.

Counsel for the suspended assemblymen declared today, however, that they will require two or three days for the examination of witnesses in rebuttal.

SCHWAB DECLARES
AMERICA TO GET MORE PROSPERITY

Wheeling, Jan. 31.—Charles M. Schwab, of the Bethlehem Steel company, sees a new era of prosperity for America. His views were reflected in an address here when he said:

"I have the greatest optimism for the future of the country. I do not fear the overturning of the government by Bolsheviks. I intend to spend more money for business expansion than ever. In fact I will spend all I have and all I can borrow to build and increase business. Efficiency in industry means an honest day's work, an honest day's pay—that is the problem now confronting us and one we have to solve."

ANGLO-JAPANESE ALLIANCE
MAY BE RENEWED

London, Jan. 31.—Negotiations for a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance are under way, said a press dispatch from Tokyo today. Viscount Uchida, the Japanese foreign minister, was quoted as saying that Japan had decided to renew the pact because of the nation wide demand for such action.

Blames Labor Unions.—"The time is very near," wrote a farmer at East Chatham, N. Y., "when we farmers will have to curtail production and raise only what we need for our own use and let the other fellows look out for themselves. Labor unions are more to blame for the high prices than anyone else. People are trying to get pay for what they don't earn."

Writing from Palmyre, Mo., another farmer said: "I almost fear a famine. Farm help everywhere is flocking to the city, lured by short hours, high wages and the promise of a good time. Some one, I fear, is going to suffer if this condition is not remedied shortly."

Declaring that the whole onus of the high cost of living rests with the middleman, another Missouri producer advocated the establishment of municipal markets, to be served by parcel post direct.

"I sell butter to the dealer for 45 cents a pound," his letter said, "and the same butter sells to the consumer for 80 cents a pound. In the distribution we lose nearly half and we lose money on the butter in the first place."

"Leave Farms By Thousands." "Such conditions are causing the farmers to leave the farm by the thousands. We have reached a crisis. You may ask what we would do with the middleman. I will suggest that it be armed for them to go on the farm and help produce things. I understand that they might not be working 14 hours a day, but if we get by the near future there will have to be some useful work done by everyone."

Social Happenings

ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON AND THEATER.

West of this city at luncheon at Rike's Saturday, followed by the matinee at the Victory to see Mrs. Fiske, in "Miss Nelly of N'Orleans." The party was arranged for the pleasure of Miss Bigger who will be a bride of next month.

MRS. DE HAVEN HOSTESS TO FIVE HUNDRED CLUB
Mrs. Agnew DeHaven converted a meeting of her five hundred club Friday evening, into a more elaborate social affair, and the evening was spent very delightfully by a company of about twenty-five. There were three tables for 275 hundred. As a surprise to the club members their hostess invited an equal number of young men to call at ten o'clock, after the games were over.

A two course supper was served, the tables being centered by a cluster of Ophelia roses, with pink ribbons leading to the corners of the table where a silver bud vase with rose buds, were placed.

Declaring that he works a 240-acre farm without help and that hundreds of other farmers are doing the same, a Revere, Mo., man declared that "the place to start to lower the cost of living is to cut the wages in the city, which have called our farm help there. We need them on the farm to help increase production and then we can cut the cost of living."

His return for last year averaged $1 a day for himself, a White Water, Mo., man said: "I hope soon to see the farmer and consumer going hand in hand. If not, then I am quitting for one. Work 14 hours a day for $1 and let the middleman get the biggest part of it? Not me."

Miss Hattie Lee has been suffering from an attack of indigestion.

The teachers, students and visiting friends of Lincoln high school were entertained at the school building, Friday afternoon by the senior class.

KEMP'S BALSAM
WILL STOP THAT COUGH

PROPOSED PIKE CHANGE MUST BE 50 FT. WIDE

Owners of property abutting on the Jamestown and Cedarville pike, which it is proposed to improve with state aid this summer, will probably all waive their rights to hold the pike to a 40 foot wide roadway in order to obtain the improvement.

The state will not lend aid to improve a road that is less than 50 feet wide. Should the property owners be unwilling to permit the Jamestown and Cedarville pike to be widened in accordance with the state rules, the county commissioners will have to go through proceedings to widen the pike, or drop the proposed improvement.

The plan is to macadamize the road its entire length of seven miles between Jamestown and Cedarville. The road, is part of the old state highway, known as the Urbana pike, running from Urbana to Marysville, Ky. It was originally 80 feet wide. Should the people between Jamestown and Cedarville refuse to allow the road to be widened the commissioners will probably transfer the improvement to the seven miles between Jamestown and Bowersville.

A meeting of abutting property owners was held with the county commissioners Friday, and the question of widening the roadway placed before them. After the matter had been explained, the majority of those present appeared to consider favorably the matter of permitting the road to be widened. A number signed the waiver before leaving the office.

Social Happenings

ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON AND THEATER.
A little party, consisting of Mrs. Jacob Baldwin, Miss Frances Bigger, and Mrs. Robert Kohle of Dayton, were guests of Mrs. R. C. MRS. DE HAVEN HOSTESS TO FIVE HUNDRED CLUB
Mrs. Agnew DeHaven converted a meeting of her five hundred club Friday evening, into a more elaborate social affair, and the evening was spent very delightfully by a company of about twenty-five. There were three tables for five hundred. As a surprise to the club members their hostess invited an equal number of young men to call at ten o'clock, after the games were over.

A two course supper was served, the tables being centered by a cluster of Ophelia roses, with pink ribbons leading to the corners of the table where a silver bud vase with rose buds, were placed.

PROPOSED PIKE CHANGE MUST BE 50 FT. WIDE
Owners of property abutting on the Jamestown and Cedarville pike, which it is proposed to improve with state aid this summer, will probably all waive their rights to hold the pike to a 40 foot wide roadway in order to obtain the improvement.

The state will not lend aid to improve a road that is less than 50 feet wide. Should the property owners be unwilling to permit the widening of the pike, the county commissioners will have to go through proceedings to widen the pike, or drop the proposed improvement.

The plan is to macadamize the road its entire length of seven miles between Jamestown and Cedarville. The road, known as the Urbana pike, running from Urbana to Marysville, Ky. It was originally 80 feet wide. Should the people between Jamestown and Cedarville refuse to allow the road to be widened the commissioners will probably transfer the improvement to the seven miles between Jamestown and Bowersville.

A meeting of abutting property owners was held with the county commissioners Friday, and the question of widening the roadway placed before them. After the matter had been explained, the majority of those present appeared to consider favorably the matter of permitting the road to be widened. A number signed the waiver before leaving the office.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN COMING TO XENIA

That old yet popular play "Uncle Tom's Cabin," dramatization of Harriet Beecher Stowe's immortal work, will appear at the opera house next Tuesday evening, under the management of the Standard Amusement Company.

The story was written by Mrs. Stowe with knowledge of the subject and it was the greatest of her many novels. In fact, so popular has it been in book and drama form that it is probably known better by the American public than any book ever written.

There are many who have never seen "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and there are still others who have not seen it for some time. Yet the majority of these latter are the sort who visit the theater every time that the famous old piece is advertised to play. Of course the modern companies have more modern equipment but the story itself remains the same. William H. Kibbler will offer the piece here with a pleasing cast including Gus Collins, eminent minstrel man, who will depict "Uncle Tom."

Mrs. Verne Scurry is ill with the grip.

Mrs. Winney Coney, who lives alone in the rear of Lexington Ave., is critically ill with a complication of diseases, and she is in destitute circumstances. Her advanced age makes her condition more pitiful. Her neighbors are doing all that they can to render her assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. General Mosby are both sick with the grip.

Mrs. Hazel Leona Burton, wife of Mr. Henry Burton, died at their home on South Columbus street, Thursday at 4:30 o'clock P. M., following an illness of only 3 or 4 days. She was born in Jamestown, Ohio, February 7, 1898, and would have been 22 years old in a few days. She was a member of the Baptist church in Jamestown. She has resided in this city only since her marriage to Mr. Burton about two years ago. Beside her husband there survive her, a mother, Mrs. Olive Rockhold, of Jamestown; two sisters, Mrs. Verba Odum and Mrs. Helen Lewis, of this city; and two brothers, Alvin Rockhold, of Jamestown, and Clifford Rockhold, of Hoopston, Ill. She leaves a number of other relatives. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Baptist church in Jamestown. The burial will be in Jamestown cemetery.

COURT NEWS

In her petition for divorce from Albert Franks, Rebecca Ward Franks declares that she was not only obliged to work to support herself, but that her husband required her to support him and his child by a former marriage. Also she avers, she had to use the $57.50 which she received from the government as insurance for a brother who was killed in the service, to support the family. They were married May 1, 1915. She wants to be restored to her maiden name.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN COMING TO XENIA

That old yet popular play "Uncle Tom's Cabin," dramatization of Harriet Beecher Stowe's immortal work, will appear at the opera house next Tuesday evening, under the management of the Standard Amusement Company.

The story was written by Mrs. Stowe with knowledge of the subject and it was the greatest of her many novels. In fact, so popular has it been in book and drama form that it is probably known better by the American public than any book ever written.

There are many who have never seen "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and there are still others who have not seen it for some time. Yet the majority of these latter are the sort who visit the theater every time that the famous old piece is advertised to play. Of course the modern companies have more modern equipment but the story itself remains the same. William H. Kibbe will offer the piece here with a pleasing cast including Gus Collins, eminent minstrel man, who will depict "Uncle Tom."

EAST END NEWS

Mr. J. Sherman Scurry received the sad news that his daughter Miss Kathryn Scurry of Indianapolis, Indiana, is very ill.

Mrs. Verne Scurry is ill with the grip.

Mrs. Winney Coney, who lives alone in the rear of Lexington Ave., is critically ill with a complication of diseases, and she is in destitute circumstances. Her advanced age makes her condition more pitiful. Her neighbors are doing all that they can to render her assistance.

Miss Sarah E. Hughes of Windsor, Ontario, Canada, was summoned here on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. Louisa Young. She will visit relatives here for a few days before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. General Mosby are both sick with the grip.

Mrs. Hazel Leona Burton, wife of Mr. Henry Burton, died at their home on South Columbus street, Thursday at 4:30 o'clock P. M., following an illness of only 3 or 4 days. She was born in Jamestown, Ohio, February 7, 1898, and would have been 22 years old in a few days. She was a member of the Baptist church in Jamestown. She has resided in this city only since her marriage to Mr. Burton about two years ago. Beside her husband there survive her, a mother, Mrs. Olive Rockhold, of Jamestown; two sisters, Mrs. Verba Odom and Mrs. Helen Lewis, of this city; and two brothers, Alvin Rockhold, of Jamestown, and Clifford Rockhold, of Hoopston, Ill. She leaves a number of other relatives. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Baptist church in Jamestown. The burial will be in Jamestown cemetery.

COURT NEWS

In her petition for divorce from Albert Franks, Rebecca Ward Franks declares that she was not only obliged to work to support herself, but that her husband required her to support him and his child by a former marriage. Also she avers, she had to use the $57.50 which she received from the government as insurance for a brother who was killed in the service, to support the family. They were married May 1, 1915. She wants to be restored to her maiden name.

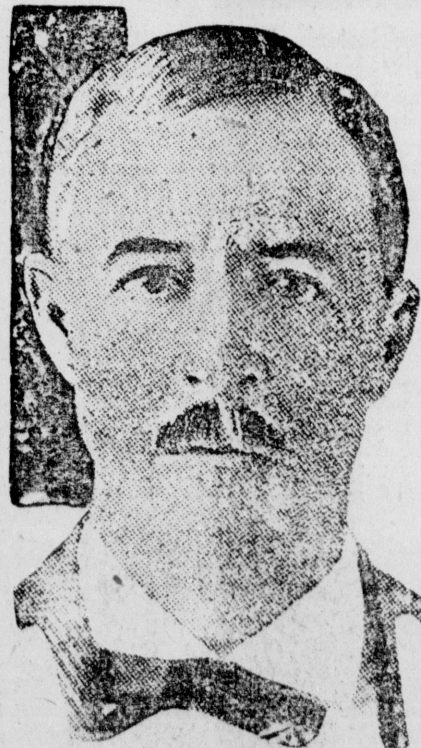

CARD OF THANKS.

DARE WE SAY: "LET THEIR BLOOD BE ON THEIR OWN HEADS?"

There is a bill up in Congress proposing a loan of $150,000,000 for food relief in Poland, Austria and Armenia. Some one had suggested that fifty millions was enough, but Herbert Hoover, who knows, said that would not relieve the menacing situation, and revolution might occur, so that it would do "more harm than good."

"One cannot describe the need of relief," Secretary Glass declared, reciting conditions related to him by American officials just back from Europe. "This relief is the humanitarian and safe thing to do. It is the plain, practical, common-sense thing to do, even if we don't get the money back. But we hope to get some of it back. It is the least expensive thing to do."

"Men, women and children, especially children, are dying by thousands. One man, just returned from Europe, saw 27 bodies lying unburied in a street in an Austrian city."

There is a fringe of the careless and thoughtless who somehow retained enough of wealth to eat, drink and be merry on the brink of the abyss; and, of course, their mad folly arouses the starving and desperate ones to paroxysmal anger.

But in Vienna and outside there can scarcely be feelings that are not compassionate for the children who had no will and no voice in making the war. They certainly did not ask to have the world that was their playground forever spoiled for them. There are perhaps 150,000 children who get each day the one meal that America provides. There are perhaps 100,000 who do not get this meal.

Let those who say "Their blood be on their own heads" turn to the 10th chapter of Mark and read the beautiful parable of "The Good Samaritan" and thus learn who is our "neighbor."

In a recent issue of the London Chronicle one of the ablest of correspondents, Philip Gibbs, has a revelatory and touching article on the present plight of Vienna. When an American reader sees in a headline the name of the formerly gay Austrian capital, he is likely to say, and with sufficient sentimental warrant: "Give me nothing to read about suffering in Vienna. Are not those of our own household and those who kept the faith with the cause of the Allies to be first regarded, in the unhappy condition to which the rest of the world was reduced or might have been reduced by the action and sympathetic connivance of the Central Powers?"

Abstract justice is for God and not for human beings to administer. Austria deserves punishment and not a maudlin pity. But we shall not even have the culprit to arraign at the bar of civilized public opinion if we allow him to perish ere the day of the dread assize.

Money has little value to its possessor unless it also has value to others.

PLAYING PARTISANSHIP WITH THE WORLD'S PEACE AT STAKE.

Woodrow Wilson went to Paris filled with a splendid enthusiasm, a glorious vision for a world peace brought about and made secure by all nations entering into a solemn covenant to prevent all future war. It was a great task to arrange and clearly define the terms of such a covenant, when the many nations involved with their varying ideals and different national aims are considered and fully appreciated.

It would seem that even a novice would see the necessity of the best brains and the broadest statesmanship for such a problem. And yet who did the broadest with him? Not one man of eminence. And the reason is clear—he could have no one with him whom he could not dominate. It is a well-recognized fact that Mr. Wilson must play a lone hand or he will not play.

At the time he went to Paris our beloved Roosevelt was alive. It is not necessary to say anything about his greatness as a statesman, an executive, a sound and broad thinker. William H. Taft was available. His splendid record in the Philippines is proof of his ability to handle important issues with tact and skill. Moreover, he is one of the finest international minds we have; a statesman of the highest grade; a sound, true American as well. Elihu Root has proved his greatness by a long life of splendid service in difficult positions. Every one will agree that he is one of our really big men. But none of these men could be considered by Mr. Wilson because they were on the opposite side of the political fence.

Abraham Lincoln invited into his cabinet men bitterly opposed to him at times, men who even called him names not very complimentary. Why? Lincoln was great enough to excuse any slight to himself, provided the best interests and highest welfare of his country were uppermost in the minds and purposes of his co-workers. Mr. Wilson can never rise to such a height.

The leaders of the Republican party saw through the clever scheme of Mr. Wilson, and they determined to meet him on the same narrow plane of partisanship. Mr. Lodge and his followers are bent on the same game. They have pulled all the wires and have exerted all their influence to convince the public that the League of Nations and the peace treaty are dangerous to American interests and that it is essential for them to be revised and altered.

In proof that this is only partisan camouflage we beg to remind the reader that Mr. Taft, after careful examination and study of both league and treaty, has more than once stated that he was ready to subscribe his name to them without any change or reservation. For he knew perfectly well that the league and the treaty as formulated at Paris have conserved and safeguarded the best interests and the highest welfare of our country. Mr. Taft's opinion is worthy of acceptance because he is a learned judge, a careful critic and the best international lawyer we have. He is not a narrow-minded partisan. He is a broad-minded statesman, and he is generous enough to give credit where credit is deserved, even if it goes to his political opponents.

TEAM 57 TO 13

The Martin murder trial drew a large crowd yesterday. The day was spent in trying to secure a jury. Twenty-four jurymen being examined and six accepted.

Officials and the coroner are investigating the cause of the fearful accident on the D. & X. traction line which claimed two lives.

Mr. Coke Ryan, who moved to Iron-ton some time ago, where he is conducting a book bindery, has returned to his home after spending a couple of days here.

Mr. A. O. Prager was in Cincinnati yesterday and attended a meeting of the stockholders of the Little Miami railroad. He was again elected a director.

An immense amount of straw is now being hauled to the Xenia paper mill.

A number of the binder twine mag-nates were in the city yesterday looking after their interests in the twine contracts held by the mills of this city. Among the number was Raper McCormick, head of the McCormick reaper manufacturing industry, a young man, but reputed to be worth thirty million dollars.

PAST AND PRESENT

Capt. Al Waddell relates a weird experience he encountered "over there." It was during mess and the orderly officers, glaring down the long table, demanded if there was an "complaints about the food."

Private Jones rose slowly and extended his cup:

"Taste this, sir," he said.

The officer took a sip, hesitated a moment, and said scathingly:

"Very excellent soup, I call it."

"Yes, sir," agreed Jones, "but the corporal says it's tea, and the cook served it as coffee, and just now I found a toothbrush in it, sir."

A colonel who was a stern disciplinarian gathered his officers about him and issued orders for the regiment's forthcoming train journey to the Coast.

"I don't object to an innocent good time on the men's part during this journey," he said, "but you will see to it that there's no swearing, no skylarking, no card playing, and as little cigarette smoking as possible."

"Bardon me, colonel," said a timid voice, "but would you object if I took along a little plain sewing to occupy my company and myself?"

"I want your opinion on a matter. Would you advise me to borrow $10 to help me out of a tight place?"

"By all means," said the lawyer.

"Very good. Let me have ten."

"That's all right. My fee for legal advice is $10 and we'll call it square."

M'KINLEY JUNIORS WIN TWO VICTORIES

Two basketball teams of McKinley Junior high proved their mettle on the court Friday, the eighth grade first team defeating Alpha 9-8 in an overtime game at the Rink here Friday afternoon and the Seventh grade first team defeating the eighth grade second team of Cedarville, 20-17 at Cedarville, Friday night.

Nine minutes overtime were required in the afternoon game with Alpha, the score standing 8-8 when the regular time was up. In nine minutes overtime, Currie tossed the foul that won the game for the locals.

The game at Cedarville was almost as close and exciting, the game being finished in the allotted time however, with the locals on the most important end of the 20-17 score.

Coch Black's McKinley Junior High teams have just been as successful on the court this year as last, and so far have won five out of seven games they have participated in.

ENGLISH GIRL TO BE RETURNED DESPITE OFFERS

New York, Jan. 31.—Miss Emily Knowles, an English girl and her three months old baby, are held at Ellis Island today and immigration authorities declare they must be sent back to England because the mother is classed, under the immigration laws, as "immoral."

Mrs. Cora M. Spiker, of Baltimore, is resisting the deportation order of the immigration officials. She declares she knows that her husband, Perley R. Spiker, is the father of Miss Knowles' child, but says that she wishes to adopt the infant and that she knows the morals of both Miss Knowles and Mr. Spiker are "above reproach."

Guy Spiker, a brother of Perley Spiker, has come forward and made affidavit of his willingness to marry Miss Knowles and "throw the cloak of protection about her."

And in the foregoing three paragraphs are set forth the facts in the most amazing instances of the "eternal triangle" that immigration authorities here ever have had presented to them. The solution of it is now up to the department of labor at Washington.

Miss Knowles, according to an affidavit filed by Mrs. Spiker, came to America with funds supplied by Mrs. Spiker after she had learned of her husband's relations with the English girl. Spiker and the girl became acquainted while he was a student aviator at a training camp in England.

"I have been thoroughly informed of all the conditions of my husband's friendship with Miss Knowles," says Mrs. Spiker's affidavit. "I know the moral character and tendencies of my husband and I know them to be above reproach. Miss Knowles is not immoral under the rules laid down in the immigration laws. She is a lovely, gentle, refined girl. I would welcome her in my home."

An affidavit filed by Perley Spiker begs that he be allowed to adopt the child, stating that he is earning $100 per week.

Mr. and Mrs. Spiker met Miss Knowles when she arrived here January 15. As soon as they learned of the action of the immigration authorities they retained counsel and began a fight to have the deportation order set aside.

Immigration officials here assert that legally there is little chance of the girl being admitted.

A decision by the department of labor is expected, however, in a few days.

teaching that women, like other property, should be held in common.

"It is gross impertinence to propose such a thing in a country where women have no say in the national legislature," said Mrs. Florence Underwood, secretary of the Women's Freedom League.

"I believe the decree can never come into force in Italy as it has adherents in only one section—the socialist party," declared Mrs. Golding Bright (George Egerton).

"I am very much in favor of making divorce easier," said Havelock Ellis, eminent psychologist and eugenicist. "I think the grounds for divorce should be enlarged. Eventually, I believe divorce merely will be a matter of common consent between husband and wife. The birth rate is far too high in Europe right now. If it had been lower there would have been no war. I say emphatically that childlessness should never be thought of as a cause for divorce."

ESCAPED AN OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Many Such Cases.

Cairo, Ill.—"Sometime ago I got so bad with female trouble that I thought I would have to be operated on. I had a bad displacement. My right side would pain me and I was so nervous I could not hold a glass of water. Many times I would have to stop my work and sit down or I would fall on the floor in a faint. I consulted several doctors and fighting to keep from having the operation. I had read so many times of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped my sister so I began taking it. I have never felt better than I am able to do all my work. The Vegetable Compound is certainly one grand medicine."

—Mrs. J. R. Matthews, 3311 Sycamore Street, Cairo, Ill.

Of course there are many serious cases that only a surgical operation will relieve. We freely acknowledge this, but the above letter, and many others like it, amply prove that many operations are recommended when medicine in many cases is all that is needed.

FINANCIERS OF ENGLAND ARE WORRIED TODAY

London, Jan. 31.—Never in history have British financiers been so worried over the financial and exchange situation as they are today. Demands for an international conference with America, Germany and Austria, represented, are being renewed.

The Daily Mail in commenting upon the situation says that the unprecedented drop in the exchange rates is boosting England's annual purchases in the United States to 5,300,000,000 pounds sterling.

The government is anxious to make loans to the central European powers, according to the Daily Mail, but wants the United States to join in underwriting them.

Herr Von Gwinner, head of the Deutsche bank of Berlin, is quoted in Berlin dispatches as predicting that Germany is nearing a crash, which would involve all Europe. This pessimistic view has increased the alarm in British financial circles. The Times believes that little can be done towards alleviation without American credits and co-operation. The Times as well as other influential London newspapers, are suggesting measures for domestic relief, including:

- 1.—Curtailling of expenditures.
- 2.—Elimination of paper money.
- 3.—Increased production.
- 4.—Purchase of only the most essential raw materials.

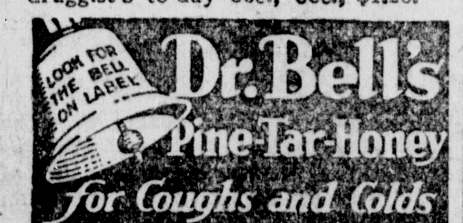

All of the newspapers from the conservative Times to the Daily Herald, the organ of the labor party, devote from one to three columns daily to the financial and economic situation.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What is your opinion of the "Mother Love" question?

Oh, mothers! women! why don't you give your children more love which they are so hungry for?

I am only a girl in the early teens but how often have I wanted to go to my mother with my little sister and troubles and small troubles that come in the life of every girl and boy. Girls and even boys are hungry for mother love. I know very well that mother loves me as all mothers love their children, but they are not the friends as they should be.

My girls marry young, thinking they will receive this love from their husbands, but alas, this love must come from their mothers first.

How often I have wanted to tell mother things, but I would almost rather go to my teacher (even if he is a man) and tell him my small every-day troubles in and out of school.

Mothers, please be a friend to your daughters, and sons also.

JUST A GIRL.

We are living in a transition period at present. The woman of yesterday, who stayed at home and thought of little outside, is giving her place to the woman of today who is no longer to shift her responsibilities in the outside world to her husband. Naturally as woman is developing into a new being she loses her close touch with the older generation.

I believe the lack of understanding between you and your mother comes from the fact that you do not believe she will understand your problems. This may be quite true. There are a few fortunate women of the older generation who have the faculty of keeping stride with the times to the extent that there is a close bond between them and their children. The children with such mothers are indeed fortunate.

Do not be afraid to tell your mother the things you long to. I believe she will understand better than you think she will. This longing is at least teaching you a lesson because it will make you more sympathetic with your own children when you have them.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two girl friends and we used to go with two boys whom we liked very much at that time. Now we are going with two other boys who live in this town.

The boys we recently went with do not live here. The boy my girl friend went with still thinks a lot of her and sends her presents. The boy I went with still writes to me but not as often as I would like to have him. Please give us your advice.

My chum wants to know what to do about her other fellow. She does not want to go with him.

I want to know what I can do to make my boy friend write more often. He cannot come to see me and her friend can.

TWO CHUMS.

Your girl friend has the privilege of dropping the young man. She should no longer permit him to call or accept presents from him since she does not enjoy his company.

If you answer the boy's letters when they come there is really nothing more you can do. Do not, however, write so often that he becomes tired of the correspondence.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: There are four girls about my age, fourteen and fifteen, who are getting up a skating party. One of the girls is naming the boys she likes, but my friend is not mentioned. I told her who I wanted and she said it was all right. How can I ask him if he would go with me? A FRIEND.

Tell the boy that you and the other girls are getting up the party. Say, "Would you like to go with me?"

DUTCH PEOPLE DETERMINED TO REFUSE DEMANDS

The Hague, Jan. 31.—Despite the dislike for their unwelcome guest there is apparently growing determination among the Dutch that the ex-kaiser should not be surrendered to the allies.

While foreign Minister Van Karnebek is standing firm in his opposition to yielding up the former German emperor for trial, Dutch officials emphasize that this attitude should not be accepted as reflecting pro-Germanism or friendliness for the erstwhile war-lord. It is pointed out that the revelations of the socialist leader Karl Kautsky regarding German war guilt have reduced the ex-kaiser's reputation in Holland to zero.

Threats of allied compulsion to get the ex-kaiser are solidifying the Dutch and practically all the people are now supporting the stand of the government. It is understood today that the cabinet has reached a final and definite decision not to surrender William unless new arguments are found to prove that the ex-kaiser broke faith with the Dutch constitution and the traditions of Holland. Dutch officials contend that their present task is to keep faith with the constitution of their country and to defend their neutrality. After steering the difficult course of war time neutrality, they believe the "kaiser-question" does not offer such a big problem.

Americans Can Sympathize

"Americans with the same traditions of liberty and independence can sympathize with our attitude," said one official. "Holland and America have been the two havens. The pilgrim fathers who went to America and your spirit of '76 all have analogies with Dutch traditions. Holland has not asked anything from Paris. On the contrary, we were asked to give up Dutch territory to Belgium, but compromised it. We do not wish to present the attitude of having a chip on our shoulder; we only want to do our duty to our law, our traditions and our conscience. We feel that only Germany could demand the ex-kaiser from us. Holland does not in the least fear economic pressure from the allies in this respect."

PROPOSE OPERATION OF PLANT BY LEASE

Washington, Jan. 30.—Operation of the Mussel Shoals nitrate plant by lease to its present owner is proposed by the Graham committee investigating expenditures in the war department, is a report to the house agreed on today. The government is to retain ownership of the plant. The committee has decided that government operation of the plant would prove too costly.

An alternative plan to be presented to the committee should the government leasing plan be rejected is to close the plant, but provide against deterioration and hold for use in event of emergency.

FIRE DESTROYS BUILDING

New York, Jan. 30.—Fire today practically destroyed the Federation of fine arts building in West 17th street and many valuable works of art which it contained. The loss was estimated at about $1,000,000.

EXPLOSION WRECKS HOUSE

Columbus, O., Jan. 30.—A house was partly wrecked and one person injured by a blast here today. The explosion is believed to be a leak or the excessive gas pressure. The explosion occurred at the residence of James Tobin, 195 South Front street. Tobin, 59, was burned about the hands and face. He was sent to a hospital.

NOT WELL—NOT SICK

When the kidneys fail to cleanse the blood of impurities the whole system is affected. The result may be a half-sick condition—not well enough to work, not sick enough for bed—rheumatic pains, backache, indigestion, Poley Kidney Pills heal and strengthen disordered kidneys and help them do their work. DRIVERS STRIKE FOR ADDITIONAL WORK

St. Clairsville, O., Jan. 30.—Striking to obtain more work, drivers at the Webb mine, of the Cambria company at Webb, Belmont county, are idle today. Their wages have been very poor this winter, due to the railroad car shortage preventing the mines from loading coal a reasonable number of days per week.

Other "day men" are kept busy on days the mine is idle at making repairs. The drivers are demanding a share of that class of work in an attempt to bolster up their pay envelopes.

MOST OF "FLU" OVER.

Detroit, Jan. 30.—Health Commissioner Vaughan announced today that the peak of the "flu" epidemic had passed in Detroit. Nine hundred new cases were reported for the 24 hours ended at 8 a.m. today with 28 deaths from influenza and 30 from pneumonia.

Heart and Home Problems

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What is your opinion on the "Mother Love" question?

Oh, motherly women! Why don't you give your children more love when they are so hungry?

I am only a girl in the early teens but how often have I wanted to go to my mother with my little school troubles and small troubles that come in the life of every girl and boy. Girls and even boys are hungry for mother love. I know very well that mother loves me as all mothers love their children, but they are not their friends as they should be.

My girls marry young, thinking they will receive this love from their husbands, but alas, this love must come from their mothers first.

How often I have wanted to tell mother things, but I would almost rather go to my teacher (even if he is a man) and tell him my small every-day troubles in and out of school.

Mothers, please be a friend to your daughters, and sons.

JUST A GIRL.

We are living in a transition period at present. The woman of yesterday, who stayed at home and thought of little outside, is giving her place to the woman of today who is no longer to shift her responsibilities in the outside world to her husband. Naturally as woman is developing into a new being she loses her close touch with the older generation.

AGRICULTURE

New Secretary of Agriculture is Farmer and Understands Farm Needs—Wool Growers, Like Railroad Brotherhoods, Desire to Eliminate Needless Middlemen—Farmers Find that "It Pays to Advertise."

The recent event of most importance to the farmer is the appointment of E. T. Meredith, publisher of "Successful Farming," at Des Moines, to succeed David F. Houston as secretary of Agriculture. While the department has accomplished much under Secretary Houston, his policies and administration have not escaped criticism. The chief criticism has been the secretary's absorption in the routine of the department and his failure to enunciate board policies with sufficient emphasis and to champion the farmers' interests, particularly in connection with the department of Justice's campaign upon high prices.

The new secretary is a practical farmer and a successful farm publisher. His long and direct contact with the problems of agriculture should give him a sympathetic understanding of the farmer's needs, while his experience as a business man should give him the necessary executive ability to get things done.

One significant feature of the National Wool Growers' association convention at Salt Lake City was the suggestion of central agencies to represent the growers in direct dealings with the manufacturers as a substitute for the present system of commission houses and individual brokers. One speaker asserted that the wool clip is handled almost exclusively by speculators, who buy at the lowest and sell at the highest price, fix the conditions of sale, and pass the risk back to the farmer while they keep the profit.

The wool growers' position calls attention to the railroad brotherhood's campaign to eliminate the middleman, where possible, and to connect producer and consumer directly through the medium of co-operative enterprise. Farmers have long been working at the problem of distribution, and now operate a large number and variety of co-operative associations, highly successful in the main. The railroads go one step beyond the average farmer's co-operative association and apply the co-operative principle to manufacture. If successful, the effort may institute a change throughout industry, and might easily prove to be labor's greatest and most original contribution toward solving the problem of high prices and industrial relations.

Farmers will follow carefully proceedings of the American Farm-Labor Co-operative commission, organized as the result of the Farm-Labor conference at Chicago last November to co-ordinate and encourage co-operative effort between and among organized producers and consumers, and to unify action in eliminating speculation and profiteering. While the commission is by no means fully representative, it contemplates action significant to every farmer.

Advertise the farmer is finding it pays to advertise. It pays the farmer to advertise his products, his shortcomings and his seed corn, if these have particular merit. Likewise it pays the farmer to advertise his point-of-view his problems, and his program. The farmer has suffered in the past because the general public did not understand the conditions surrounding agriculture. No one but the farmer will take the trouble or is qualified to advertise the truth about farming.

Such a Memorial, embodying originality of design, is not only a credit to the taste of the purchaser but also is a reflection of the ability of the designer and builder.

When the designing, quarrying, manufacturing and erecting are under the efficient management of the departments of one firm, all co-operating toward one end, the purchaser must necessarily profit. Such is the method of

New Secretary of Agriculture is Farmer and Understands Farm Needs—Wool Growers, Like Railroad Brotherhoods, Desire to Eliminate Needless Middlemen—Farmers Find that "It Pays to Advertise."

The recent event of most importance to the farmer is the appointment of E. T. Meredith, publisher of "Successful Farming," at Des Moines, to succeed David P. Houston as secretary of Agriculture. While the department has accomplished much under Secretary Houston, his policies and administration have not escaped criticism. The chief criticism has been the secretary's absorption in the routine of the department and his failure to enunciate board policies with sufficient emphasis and to champion the farmers' interests, particularly in connection with the department of Justice's campaign upon high prices.

The new secretary is a practical farmer and a successful farm publisher. His long and direct contact with the problems of agriculture should give him a sympathetic understanding of the farmer's needs, while his experience as a business man should give him the necessary executive ability to get things done. One significant feature of the National Wool Growers' association convention at Salt Lake City was the suggestion of central agencies to represent the growers in direct dealings with the manufacturers as a substitute for the present system of commission houses and individual brokers. One speaker asserted that the wool clip is handled almost exclusively by speculators, who buy at the lowest and sell at the highest price, fix the conditions of sale, and pass the risk back to the farmer while they keep the profit.

The wool growers' position calls attention to the railroad brotherhoods' campaign to eliminate the middleman, where possible, and to connect producer and consumer directly through the medium of co-operative enterprise. Farmers have long been working at the problem of distribution, and now operate a large number and variety of co-operative associations, highly successful in the main. The railroads go one step beyond the average farmer's co-operative association and apply the co-operative principle to manufacture. If successful, the effort may institute a change throughout industry, and might easily prove to be labor's greatest and most original contribution toward solving the problem of high prices and industrial relations.

Farmers will follow carefully proceedings of the American Farm-Labor conference at Chicago last November to coordinate and encourage co-operative effort between and among co-operative producers and consumers, and to unify action in eliminating speculation and profiteering. While the commission is by no means fully representative, it contemplates action significant to every farmer.

Even the farmer is finding it pays to advertise. It pays the farmer to advertise his apples, his shortness and his seed corn, if these have particular merit. Likewise, it pays the farmer to advertise his point-of-view, his problems, and his program. The farmer has suffered in the past because the general public did not understand the conditions surrounding agriculture. No one but the farmer will take the trouble or is qualified to advertise the truth about farming.

WIDOW FILES AN AFFIDAVIT IN BRYAN MATTER

Mrs. Frederika Byran, widow of John Bryan, owner of Riverside Farm, and Park, near Yellow Springs and proprietor of The Physicians' and Surgeons' Supply Company, Cincinnati, filed an affidavit in the Hamilton county common pleas court in connection with the suit of L. D. Bryan, a brother of her husband, who is seeking to set aside John Bryan's will.

Mrs. Bryan says the estate left by her husband did not come to him by descent, and if the will is set aside, she will be the sole beneficiary. The plaintiff and her husband's other brothers, sisters or nephews, she declares have no interest in the estate except to the extent of $5 each which was left under the will.

For this reason, she says, no cause of action accrued to L. D. Bryan upon the death of her husband, and the court would be without jurisdiction to entertain the petition. The affidavit was filed in support of a plea in abatement filed by The Union Savings Company, executors and trustees under Bryan's will.

By his will John Bryan left a large fortune to his widow, bequests to former employees, and provided for presenting his 500 acre farm near Yellow Springs to the state, with the provision that no religious organization be permitted to have any part in the gift. No action has ever been taken by the state toward accepting the gift, although the fish and game commission and other branches of the government have expressed a desire for it.

ASTHMA WOULDN'T LET HIM LIE DOWN

Hasn't had a sign of trouble now for over 9 months.

"A year ago I had asthma so bad my friends thought I would never get over it. I had doctored for a long time without results. I had not been in bed for 3 weeks, could not even sit up straight in a chair. Then I heard of Milks Emulsion and started using it. It was only two days later that I could go to bed and sleep soundly. After taking eight bottles ($4 worth) I found myself completely cured. It is over 9 months now since I quit taking Milks Emulsion, and I haven't had a symptom of asthma since."—Geo. W. Baker, R. F. D. 1, Latrobe, Pa.

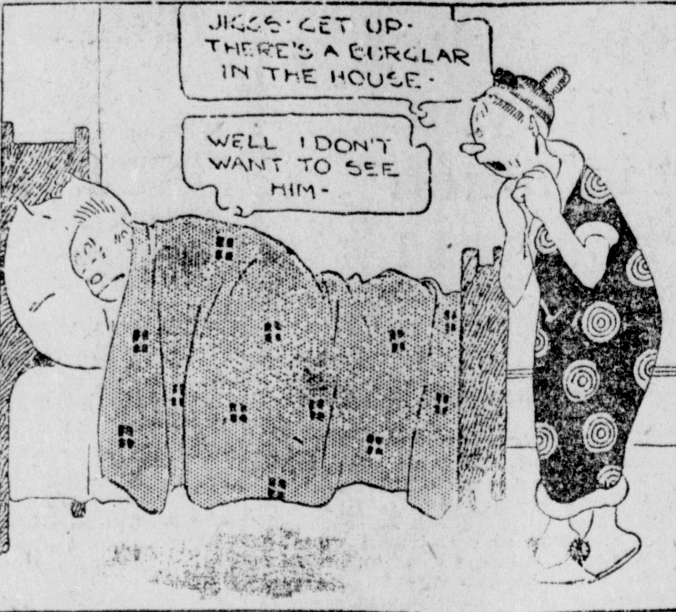

Why shouldn't Milks Emulsion help you? It has worked wonders for others. It costs nothing to try.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED---AND EARNED

BY JANE PHELPS
A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

AUNT FELICIA HAS HER "SAY"

CHAPTER 40.

"Did you and the old girl have a monkey and parrot time after I left?" Robert asked and then I noticed he had been drinking.
"I had a very unpleasant time," I replied, with dignity.
"What'd she say to you?" his voice was thick.
"Everything she could think of. Now you have come home—"
"I'm not—you needn't say it. But I met the boys and we went down town and played pool."
"Don't you think under the circumstances you might have stayed with me?"
"No, under the circumstances I think I shall play pool every night. Nice and warm there, everybody jolly. I hate this boarding house. Devilish place to stay. If I had a home like Weed and Murphy it would be different. But this place, bah!"

Tears rolled down my cheeks, but he never noticed and soon he went to bed and fell immediately asleep. It was the last straw, I thought, as I wiped my eyes. I had endured enough without having him come home in that condition.
In the morning I said goodbye to Aunt Felicia.
"Robert will see that you get your train. He has nothing else to do," I told her.
"No, now that my wife supports me, I have time for anything," he muttered under his breath.

I paid no attention to his muttered words or to his aunt's looks, but went to the shop at my usual time. I had not felt unkindly toward her at any time, although her visit it had been prolonged and she was not the most agreeable person imaginable. But this morning I felt I hated her. In some way I was inclined to blame her, although I knew she had nothing to do with Robert losing his position. What she had said the night before rangled.
After Robert had left us she had remarked:
"I am glad Robert went out to-night. I want to talk to you."
"What about, Aunt Felicia?"
"Yourself, and Robert. You have sent me away but I shall speak my mind before I go, and you will listen."
"There is no need to speak like that. Of course, I shall listen to whatever you wish to say."
"Very well. You will be either a deserted or a divorced woman before many years go over your head. Mark what I say!"
Between anger and astonishment I could not speak. She waited a moment, then went on:
"You think you can marry, and go on doing just as you please, regardless of your husband, I may be old-fashioned, but a woman has no business marrying unless she intends to be a wife. And—"
"What ARE you talking about? It isn't necessary for you to insult me because I said we could not afford to entertain you any longer. I did my best for you as long as I could without even letting you know it was not Robert who was paying. But I cannot do more than my salary will allow."
"No one wants you to. I am very ready to leave you. I thought I was helping you by staying; that you were alone when Robert was obliged to be out and that I was company for you."
"Robert has not been obliged to be out. He is out because he wants to be." I was still angry, and took no pains to hide it.
"I don't blame him."
"Of course you don't! Even if he can't earn enough to support us he is your nephew. I guess he comes honestly by his lack of business acumen. He seems to have absolutely none."
"He would have supported you all right had you let him in the beginning. But no, he couldn't earn enough for such a fine lady as you are. Such clothes as you wear are beyond most young men to furnish. Had you been contented to start simply, give Robert a home he would not now be out of a job; neither would others have been put above him so taking away his ambition. It is all your fault, not his."
When she finished I left the room and the house without again speaking. I did not dare open my mouth for fear I would say something I would be terribly sorry for because I was so angry. After all she was old, and Robert's aunt.
To Be Continued.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED---AND EARNED

A MODERN STORY OF HOME AND BUSINESS

AUNT FELICIA HAS HER "SAY"

CHAPTER 40.
"Did you and the old girl have a monkey and parrot time after I left?" Robert asked and then I noticed he had been drinking.
"I had a very unpleasant time," I replied, with dignity.
"What'd she say to you?" his voice was thick.
"Everything she could think of. Now you have come home—"
"I'm not—you needn't say it. But I met the boys and we went down town and played pool."
"Don't you think under the circumstances you might have stayed with me?"
"No, under the circumstances I think I shall play pool every night. Nice and warm there, everybody jolly. I hate this boarding house. Devilish place to stay. If I had a home like Weed and Murphy it would be different. But this place, bah!"
Tears rolled down my cheeks, but he never noticed and soon he went to bed and fell immediately asleep. It was the last straw, I thought, as I wiped my eyes. I had endured enough without having him come home in that condition.
In the morning I said goodbye to Aunt Felicia.
"Robert will see that you get your train. He has nothing else to do," I told her.
"No, now that my wife supports me, I have time for anything," he muttered under his breath.
